But Keenan is suffered to hard to keep under perfect control. Like many other horses of good class he is inclined to hang and load unless he is hadled by a very museular rider with a grip of Seel. Pierre Lordillard's filly Annisette had Keenan all out in the homestratch, and little light weight Griffin, with some 20 pounds of lead in his saddle, had to exert himself to the utmost to get Keenan home a head before Annisette. Wild reports reached this city from Flushing. L. L. last night concerning the Flushing Jockey Chik, which, it was said, had been organized at that place. The organizers are Harry H. Lawrence, George B. Mickle, Simon Felst, L. Striker and Charles D. Newton, one of the wildest of the reports was that the new organization would be hooked by several millions of dollars. The chib, it is declared, will hold a meeting of thirty days on the Flushing driving track, beginning in July It is generally understood among horsemen that the track will be managed somewhat after the manner of Cliffon or other New-Jersey tracks. A grand stand and stalls for several hundred horses are now being built. PATENTS for inventions secured promptive lies to references. Liberal terms.
